Former Portfolio Strategies Executive Joins Matrix Financial Solutions

MG Trust names Mike Taylor Vice President of Sales

Denver, CO - April 16, 2008 – MG Trust Company, LLC (“MG Trust”), a Matrix Financial Solutions affiliated company, today announced the appointment of Mike Taylor as Vice President, Sales. With over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry, Taylor is charged with developing new relationships between MG Trust and TPAs and recordkeepers, as well as working closely with existing MG Trust customers on business development.

“Mike will play a critical role in educating our customers about the latest products and services offered by MG Trust,” said Scott Pearson, President, MG Trust. “With the recent launch of our new products, such as the target date collective funds, it is important that we have someone on board that not only understands how to navigate today’s retirement climate, but also comes in with established relationships. Mike has an impressive track record of building and managing sales initiatives. We are glad to have him leading this effort for MG Trust.”

Prior to joining MG Trust, Taylor spent more than 25 years at various companies such as Portfolio Strategies, Hartford Life Insurance, Nationwide and Great West Life, among others.

“MG Trust already has a great reputation in the industry for providing trust and custody services. I am thrilled to be able to join their team and help them rollout new products,” said Mike Taylor, Vice President, Sales, MG Trust. “MG Trust is well-positioned to take advantage of its already solid relationships with TPAs and recordkeepers.
